It's Your Downtown ...

Haines City Main Street invites you to become a part of the revitalization of our historic downtown area.

Haines City Main Street was formed to play an active role in preserving our community's past while building out future through continuous improvement, growth and development of downtown Haines City.

The Main Street approach advocates a return to community self-reliance and emphasizes the downtown's traditional assets: personal service, local ownership, unique architecture, and sense of community.

Haines City Main Street, Inc. is a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization whose objective is to improve the image of downtown by facilitating incremental change and growth, using the National Main Street Approach™.

Organization:

Pull everyone together!

- Develops a variety of methods to secure the financial resources necessary for continued revitalization of downtown Haines City.

Promotion:

Let the show begin!

- Enhances the image of downtown
- Encourages consumers and investors to live, work, play and invest in downtown through advertising, retail promotions, special events, and marketing campaigns.

Design:

Pay attention to the details!

- Capitalizes on downtown's historic buildings and pedestrian-oriented streets to create an inviting downtown atmosphere through facade renovations, signage, public improvements, and streetscapes.

Economic Restructuring:

Let's keep growing!

- Strengthens downtown's existing economic assets while expanding and diversifying its economic base through business retention and recruitment.
